

About Cookies:

A cookie is a small file of data stored by your computer's browser memory or on your computer's hard drive. Cookies enable us to remember your display preferences such as login details and language over time. Blackthorn Finance Limited ("we") uses the following cookies:

- Strictly necessary cookies: these are cookies that are required for the operation of our website;
- Functionality cookies: these are used to provide you with the requested services and remember your settings to improve your use of the website;
- Analytical/Performance cookies: these allow us to recognise and count, for example, the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily. Analytical cookies include third party cookies, set by third parties, that do not operate our website and/or App in order to collect statistics. All information collected by means of these cookies is processed and stored in an anonymous way.

We use Google Analytics to help us measure how you interact with our website and its contents. Our website and/or App contains links to other websites not owned by us. We are not responsible for the cookie practices on these websites.
